Part VII. Project Ideas

1. Prepare an oral presentation on why we believe the King James Version to be the safest and soundest English Bible version to use.
2. Examine several different modern Bible versions. Write a report or draw a large chart explaining important changes of meaning you found in the same verse in various versions.
3. Write a report on the men who translated the KJV, especially the leaders in the work.
4. Construct a mural on evidences that the Bible is the Word of God. Try to illustrate each point with as many examples as you can find.
5. After reading some archeological reports or books, share some of the discoveries you read about that confirm the historical accuracy of the Bible.
6. Describe one of the false religions in detail and illustrate some of its religious practices. What "evidences of counterfeiting" did you find?
