

CHAPTER 4

Part V. From the Marginal Questions

1. Why is it more “understandable” to believe in a God we cannot fully understand, than to believe in a god that is completely understood by the human mind? _____

2. If God the Father, Son, or Holy Spirit were not God, why would the salvation of a sinner be impossible? _____

3. Concerning true, experiential knowledge of God, what must we carefully teach and not teach? _____

4. Some “Christians” today deny the doctrine of God’s decree. Why is this denial actually denying that God is God? What type of ruler would God be if He ruled without a plan? _____

5. How is the doctrine of election the hope and security of God’s church? _____
