

QUESTIONS

Part III. Biblical Applications

1. How does Acts 17:28a teach us that when we sin, we do so by using the very gifts and powers that God is mercifully giving to us at that very moment? _____

2. How does Luke 22:22 testify that Judas Iscariot's betrayal of the Lord Jesus was in God's decree and providence, but also that Judas would be fully responsible and guilty when committing this act? _____

3. How can Genesis 32:24-31 be compared with the story of the shepherd who broke one of his sheep's legs? _____

4. How is II Samuel 16:5-13 an example of true patience in adversity? _____

Part III. Biblical Applications

In your own words, explain the meaning of the following quotations:

1. "Some providences, like Hebrew letters, must be read backwards" (John Flavel).

2. "Grace makes the promise, and providence the payment" (John Flavel). _____

2. "We may feel God's hand as a Father upon us when He strikes us as well as when He strokes us" (Abraham Wright). _____

