

CHAPTER 6

Part V. From the Marginal Questions

1. Why is the Christian's world view a personal one; and the deist's, pantheist's, and humanist's not? _____

2. What rich security does the true Christian possess that the world can never match? How is a life of trusting in God different from that of trusting in man or worldly items? _____

3. What is the difference between something being in God's providence or in His favor? Why is this distinction important? _____

4. In the poem, "The Plan of the Master Weaver," what is meant by each of the following expressions?
 - a. "Tis He who fills the shuttle" _____

 - b. "Not till the loom is silent" _____

 - c. "Shall God unroll the canvas and explain the reasons why" _____

5. The less Christian and the more humanistic and materialistic our society becomes, the greater impatience, pride, and anxiety we will observe. Why?
