

CHAPTER I

Part V. From the Marginal Questions

1. Why can we not fully answer the question, "What is God?" How can we know that God works even though we cannot fully understand Him? _____

2. Can you name some conflicts in our present society between faith in God and His Word, and faith in man and his theories? _____

3. If a person does not believe in the true God, why is he yet missing the most important reason for, and purpose of, his life? _____

4. What effect do 'mind-believing,' but not "heart-living," Christians have on society? _____

5. To believe in some but not all God's attributes is dangerous. Why? _____

